Professional News Releases

Employers - MCC will list job openings solely as a courtesy to its students and patrons.

This listing is not for continuous open recruitments, but rather for specific openings advertised for a finite period. Your job posting will expire after the indicated period of time.

Please notify the college when the posted position has been filled.

Mohave Community College has not investigated, evaluated or screened any persons who respond to any openings posted on the college's website, and employers assume full responsibility for the appropriate background investigation of every applicant to assure themselves that the candidate is eligible, qualified and suitable for the job.

The website remains the property of the college. It is not a public forum, and any postings may be rejected or removed at any time at the sole discretion of the college. You are invited to post your job openings on Corporate Connect/OptimalResume. If you have any questions, please e-mail slossing@mohave.edu.
