

The Board shall maintain membership in the Higher Learning Commission and make every possible effort to achieve and maintain full accreditation with this organization (ARS 15-1445.8).

The Board shall maintain membership in the American Association of Community Colleges.

The college President is provided discretionary authority with regard to college membership in other associations, so long as these memberships are kept within budgetary provisions.

---

Date of Policy Adoption:                      June 12, 2008

References:                                      ARS 15-1445.8