- In-State Tuition Rates
- Out of State Tuition Rates
- Western Undergraduate Exchange Tuition Rates
- In-State Senior Citizens Tuition Rates
- First-Time Student Tuition Rates
- Active Duty Military Tuition Rates

Course and/or Program Fees

A number of degree programs have course and/or program fee that are in addition to tuition and the other fees listed above. Please refer to the current academic year catalog for the most up-to-date and accurate information.

Course, Studio and Laboratory Fees

Some courses have studio, laboratory or supply fees associated with them. Please refer to the current academic year catalog for the most up-to-date and accurate information.

Prior Learning Assessment Credits

Please refer to the current academic year catalog for the prior learning assessment credit fee.

Auditing Credit Classes

Students auditing a class are responsible for any associated course fees regardless of waived tuition.

Conditions for Auditing a Credit Class: An audited course may be repeated beyond the stated limits of the repeat rules. The class must have had enough regular credit students to be offered. There must be space available for the student auditing the class. Enrollment is allowed only during the drop/add period. No audits are allowed in medical or special courses unless the student is enrolled in the program as a formal student.

Note: The auditing fee per credit hour is determined by the student's classification under the established tuition rates, in addition to the Student Activity Fee, the Technology Fee, and all course fees. Students will not receive financial aid or VA educational benefits for audited courses.

Non-Credit Fees

Community Education and Corporate Outreach Courses

Fees are established for community and corporate outreach offerings based on the length and nature of the offering. The fee will be clearly stated in the schedule of offerings. There is no difference in the fees charged in-state and out-of-state participants in community education and corporate outreach offerings, except for senior citizens. Any senior citizen discounts would be applied during registration.

English Language Acquisition for Adults (ELAA) & GED

Please call the campus Pre-College Studies Office for current fees for Adult Basic Education (ABE), English Language Acquisition for Adults (ELAA) and General Education Development Programs.

Non Course FeesStudent Activity and Technology Fee

Please refer to the current academic year catalog for student activity and technology fees.

Testing and Administrative Fees

Some services and activities at MCC have additional fees associated with them. Please refer to the current academic year catalog for testing and administrative fees.

Due upon Registration

Students are responsible for the full amount assessed as a result of enrollment. Payment in full must be received by the published due date. Published due dates for each semester are listed in the Mohave Community College student information system.

Methods of Payment

MCC accepts online payments with a credit or debit card, mailed payments with a check or money order, or in-person payments. Other means of settling student accounts include: MCC Payment Plan, Federal Financial Aid, Scholarships, Veterans Educational Benefits, and Third Party.

If payment is not made or the above payment options are not secured by the published due date, course(s) will be dropped and the student will need to re-enroll in the course(s) when a payment method is established. The college is not responsible if any course is full and the student's schedule cannot be duplicated. To avoid this, students should ensure that payment arrangements are made by the payment due date.

Tuition & Fee Refund Policy for Credit and Non-Credit Courses

If a student DROPS a class during that class's official Add/Drop period, the student may receive a refund of 100% of tuition and applicable fees paid to the college. This does not include any fees designated as "non-refundable".

The college will provide full refunds for any classes the college cancels. Refunds require approximately ten business days to process after the Add/Drop period.

Refunds under Special Circumstances

Approval for special circumstance refunds must be obtained from the chief student services officer. In special circumstances, a student may request to be dropped from all courses after the official add/drop period within the current semester, for one of the following reasons and receive a refund (if applicable) of tuition and net fees (except fees for instruments, tools, or uniform costs):

1. Serious illness of student or student's spouse, parent, child, legal guardian or sibling as long as the request is made prior to the end of the semester in which the illness occurs. The student must produce a verifiable doctor's statement certifying that their illness or the illness of the relative prevents the student from attending classes.
2. Death of student*, student's spouse, parent, child, legal guardian, or sibling if the request is made prior to the end of the semester in which the death occurs. The student or the student's representative must provide a death certificate or newspaper obituary notice as well as proof of relationship (birth certificate, marriage license).
3. Military service/deployment, if the student who belongs to the armed forces or National Guard is called to active duty and assigned to a duty station distant from the campus. A copy of the military orders must be provided.
4. Jury duty that requires five days or more of consecutive service. A copy of the court order must be provided.

If the student requesting the special circumstances drop has paid for their current courses with financial aid, the student must pay back the financial aid that was received. The special circumstances process does not grant forgiveness for federal Title IV financial aid funds. Student needs to meet with an advisor to request a special circumstance refund.

*Death of the student should trigger a loan discharge process.

Refunds for Programs Provided by Third Parties

For students using military tuition assistance:

Unearned tuition assistance (TA) funds will be returned on a proportional basis through at least the 60 percent portion of the period for which the funds were provided. TA funds are earned proportionally during an enrollment period, with unearned funds returned based upon when a student stops attending.

When a Service member stops attending due to military service obligation, a special circumstances drop may be requested by the student.
