

In order to protect privacy, federal law restricts access to personal information about students. In accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) of 1974, all information pertaining to a student's education record will remain confidential, unless requested information falls within the FERPA guidelines such as basic directory information (name, address, phone number, major, etc.) that is generally available to the public. All clinical information pertaining to a students' diagnosis of a medical, psychiatric, psychological, or emotional disorder and treatment shall be kept in a separate file in a locked room, under strict confidence, in accordance with FERPA guidelines and the Americans with Disabilities Act for medical information, unless the students presents a danger to himself or to others.

You, the student may grant Mohave Community College permission to release authorized information to a third party by submitting this completed form. Third parties include, but are not limited to: parents, spouses and third-party sponsors. Authorized information will be provided only upon request by, and proof of identity of the third party.

Duty to Report and Limitations of Confidentiality:

Mohave Community College (MCC)/Disability Services (DS) will observe the strictest confidentiality of a student's disability. However, MCC/DS and its staff maintains the right to report information to MCC departmental staff, faculty, Law Enforcement and emergency contacts/family members if student threatens harm to self and/or others, or the planning of a commission of a crime (see Tarasoff v Regents of the University of California). Final determination for providing reasonable accommodations will rest with the institution and its assigned agents. MCC and DS reserve the right to deny services to any individual who presents a danger to themselves or others, or who make their intentions known to harm others, and will take necessary preventative and legal actions to maintain safety.
