I. Announcements/Additions to the Agenda

None.

II. Approval of Minutes

A motion was made by Mathew Saginario, seconded by James Stockbridge, and carried unanimously to approve the minutes of the November 2, 2018, meeting.

III. Treasurer's Report

Sunshine Boylan presented the Treasurer's Report. The Student Activities Council's (SAC's) balance as of November 15, 2018, is $66,086.01. A motion was made by Melanie Arnold, seconded by Randall Mann, and carried unanimously to approve the Treasurer's Report.

IV. Important Dates

Date(s) to Add:

- Friday, January 18, 2019 – Movie Night, 5:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m., in the 600 Building.

V. Old Business

A. Promotional Items Committee Report

A motion was made by Matthew Saginario, seconded by Randall Mann, and carried unanimously to purchase 400 T-shirts with the SAC logo at a cost not to exceed $2,200.

B. Spring Welcome Back Bash Planning Committee Report

The committee is working on the details of the Spring Welcome Back Bash, which will take place February 21. This item is tabled until the next meeting when the committee can put together a plan, present it to Dean Woods for approval, and then present it to the SAC.

C. Canopy Cover for Walkway

This item is tabled until the next meeting when more details can be brought back to the SAC.

D. Student Survey

In moving forward with an online survey for students, Nicholas Magee presented several suggested questions for the survey. He asked the members to send any other suggested questions that they would like added to him by November 28, so he can finalize the questions at the next SAC meeting.

E. Helium Tank for SAC Events

Research was done on the cost of a cylinder and helium fills. Because containment is a safety issue on campus, the idea of purchasing a permanent tank was taken off the table.

VI. New Business

A. Giving Trees

Clubs were invited to decorate a tree in Building 500. Along with the Library, five clubs have reserved a tree to decorate: the Creative Spaces Club, the Veterans Club, the Surgical Technologist Club, the Phi Theta Kappa club, and the Physical Therapist Assistant club. Trees need to be decorated by Monday, December 3, to be ready to be displayed and judged at the MCC Shines event on Thursday, December 6. Clubs are not required to choose a charity and gather donations as part of the tree this year; however, if clubs want to collect donations, they are welcome to do so after their charity is approved by Dean Woods.

A. Giving Tree Award

A motion was made by James Stockbridge, seconded by Matthew Saginario, and carried to purchase a plaque for the winner of the tree contest in an amount not to exceed $150.00.

B. Other New Business

Nicholas Magee reported that he is getting details on the movie night scheduled for January 18.

C. Future Events

A suggestion was brought forth to have a Valentine's Day rose giveaway.

VII. Club Reports

A. Bighorn Decoders Computer Club (BHDD)

The club hosted a successful Take-A-Part and Question and Answer event on November 14. Club members will be teaming with the Veterans club to plan a video game tournament.

B. Creative Spaces Club

The club will be meeting today at 3 p.m. in Room 1220 to plan future events.

C. Physical Therapist Assistant Club (PTA)

Club members are excited to sponsor their volleyball tournament tomorrow, November 17, 8 – 4 p.m. They are raising funds to attend the Bodies Exhibit in Las Vegas in the spring.

D. Phi Theta Kappa, Alpha Chi Chi Club (PTK)

Club members hosted a successful faculty appreciation brunch this morning and presented faculty members with their appreciation apples. They are planning their next induction ceremony on December 7 and have invited Mayor Sheehy to speak.

E. Student Art League (SAL)

Club members hosted a successful art show on November 15 and, at that event, added three more members to their club. Their next club meeting is November 30.

F. Surgical Technologist Club (Surg Tech)

No report given as club was not represented.

G. Veterans Club

Club members had their first club meeting with one of their advisors and acquired a new member. Members are planning future events, including a possible volunteer program for the holidays, as well as a video game tournament. Their next biweekly meeting will be held on November 30.

VIII. Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 1:10 p.m.
