

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING MEMBERSHIP IN THE ARIZONA COMMUNITY COLLEGE COORDINATING COUNCIL
(ACCCC)

WHEREAS, community colleges in Arizona are authorized to form a separate legal entity for the joint exercise of common powers pursuant to section 11-952, subsection A, A.R.S.; and

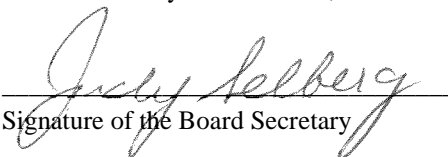

WHEREAS, Mohave County Community College District believes that advancing the shared interests of community colleges in Arizona is better served through forming an organization such as the Arizona Community College Coordinating Council (ACCCC) as a separate legal entity, as authorized by law; and

WHEREAS, Mohave County Community College District desires to participate in such separate legal entity, the ACCCC;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED THAT Mohave County Community College District does hereby authorize the creation of the ACCCC as a separate legal entity as well as its membership and participation in the ACCCC.

FURTHER RESOLVED, that the District's President or Chancellor is authorized to take such further action for or on behalf of the District, as is necessary, desirable or convenient to effectuate the intent of the foregoing resolution.

Passed and adopted by the Mohave County Community College
District, State of Arizona,
on this ninth day of November, 2012.
