Location: Lake Havasu City Campus, Room 204

Attendees: Michael Adams (SAL), Diane Aquino, Ricarda DeAnda, Wanda Dickinson (SAL), Marylou Duron (SAL), Jessie Jordan (SAL), Nicklas Peterson (PTA), Danita Shipman, James Stockbridge (SAL), Nadia Suarez (BDCC), Julietta Villa, Zachary Waggoner (PTA), Katie White, Jann Woods

I. Announcements or Additions to the Agenda

Julietta Villa updated the members about the proposal to have Pet Partners on the campus for fall semester midterms and finals week. Because of time constraints, the event did not happen; however, the item will be presented again for the spring semester.

Danita Shipman stated that another Frank Talks session is scheduled for January 23, 2020. She asked to have the item added to the agenda to request SAC to approve funds for refreshments.

II. SAC President Announcements

Ricarda DeAnda commented on how good the holiday lights look on campus. She also thanked everyone for their participation in the recent very successful MCC Shines event.

Ms. DeAnda invited all students to attend the Young Adult Development Association of Havasu (YADAH) meeting at noon on December 18, in which they will be planning the Hobbies not Habits event on March 7. Volunteers are needed at the event.

III. Approval of Minutes

James Stockbridge made a motion, and Julietta Villa seconded that motion, to approve the minutes from the November 15, 2019, SAC meeting. Without further discussion, the motion carried unanimously.

IV. Treasurer's Report

Ms. DeAnda presented the Treasurer's Report.

Zachary Waggoner made a motion, and Nadia Flores seconded that motion, to approve the Treasurer's Report dated December 3, 2019.. Without further discussion, the motion carried unanimously.

V. Important Dates

Dean Woods stated that the campus will be scheduling a Stop the Bleed class on Wednesday, January 29, 2:30 – 4:30 p.m., in Building 600. She encouraged all students to attend..

VI. Old Business

A. S.A.V.E. Presentation Update

This item will be tabled until further information can be gathered.

B. Spring Campus Dance Committee Update

The date of Thursday, March 12, has been set for the Spring Dance to be held in the 600 Building from 6 to 8 p.m. The committee will look into hiring a DJ and will resume further event plans after the holidays

C. Acoustic Music Night/Jam Session Committee Update

The date of Friday, February 21, has been set for the music night/jam session to be held in the 600 Building. The committee will resume planning this event after the holidays.

VII. New Business

A. Student Activities Surveys

Ricarda DeAnda read the student suggestions that were deposited into the survey boxes. Among the suggestions were:

- Campus cookouts
- Student application days
- A fine arts display on campus
- More music on campus

The members discussed having a cookout in early April and possibly renting space at Rotary Park. The cookout could include a band.

A discussion ensued about recreating the survey to include the question to students about which days are best for them to participate in events. The survey could possibly be online or instructors could distribute them to students in their classes. A committee was formed to revise the student survey. Committee members include Wanda Dickinson, Michael Adams, and Ricarda DeAnda.

An item to purchase boxes for the surveys will be added to the next agenda. Ricarda DeAnda agreed to research information on the costs.

B. Frank Talks

Michael Adams made a motion , and Julietta Villa seconded that motion, to approve spending up to $50 for refreshments for the Frank Talks scheduled for Thursday, January 23, 5:30 – 6:30 p.m., in the Library.

The session is entitled “Can I Tell You How Much I Hate You?” and Dean Woods encouraged students to attend this important event on the discussion of free speech.

Without further discussion, the motion carried unanimously.

VIII. Civic Engagement and Service Learning

A. Strategic Plan Future Summit – Monday, January 13, 12:30 – 5:00 p.m., Bullhead City

Ms. DeAnda invited all students to attend the Strategic Plan Future Summit at the Anderson Auto Group Fieldhouse in Bullhead City on Monday, January 13, 1 – 5 p.m. Although the event is scheduled on the break between semesters, she encouraged all students to attend this groundbreaking event that will include four different speakers. A discussion ensued about having the event zoomed in to the Lake Havasu City Campus. If that is possible, a suggestion came up about SAC providing lunch for the event. The members decided to make a motion to approve funding for lunch in the case of the event being zoomed. Ms. DeAnda will find out if it can be zoomed and let students know.

A motion was made by James Stockbridge, and Jesse Jordan seconded that motion, to approve spending up to $200 to provide lunch for the proposed zoom session of the Strategic Plan Future Summit on January 13, 2020. Without further discussion, the motion carried.

IX. Club Reports – this is the time when the clubs report on previous or future activities. Items for the agenda that require action must be communicated at the beginning of the meeting and added under either old or new business.

A. Bighorn Decoders Computer Club (BDCC)

The club's gaming event on November 20 was a success and there were about 15 students who attended. Canned food donations were accepted and delivered to the Havasu Community Health Foundation Food Bank. Club members are planning a recycling event and may coordinate with Republic Solid Waste's December 13 event where they are allowing people to bring used electronics.

B. Physical Therapist Assistant Club (PTA)

Club members will be holding a fundraiser at Panda Express on December 12, 2019. They encouraged students to attend.

C. Phi Theta Kappa, Alpha Chi Chi Club (PTK)

The PTK Induction Ceremony held on Wednesday, December 4, was a success and the room was full of attendees. Twelve students were inducted. Mayor Sheehy attended and the guest speaker was Dean Woods.

D. Student Art League (SAL)

The club is planning a tie dye event on December 18 and are hoping to sell a lot of their tote bags on the First Friday event tonight. Members are working on planning a sketch party, as well as a paper mache project for Earth Day on April 22, 2020.

E. Student Nursing Organization (SNO)

No report given as no representation present.
