VI. Old Business

A. Domestic Violence Awareness Presentation Report

Ricarda DeAnda reported that of the 19 people in attendance at the HAVEN Sexual Assault/Domestic Violence Awareness Presentation held on October 3, only one attendee was a student. She encouraged students to attend more of these informative events.

VII. New Business

A. Upcoming Frank Talks

Frank Talks are face-to-face conversations on important issues that affect communities. The talks are provided by AZ Humanities at no cost. Providing refreshments, such as coffee, water, sodas, and cookies, is suggested, at a budget amount of $50 for each session. Frank Talks are scheduled for November 7, 2019, November 14, 2019, and January 30, 2020.

Michael Adams made a motion, and Matthew Saginario seconded that motion, to approve spending up to $50 per session for refreshments for the Frank Talks scheduled for November 7, 2019, November 14, 2019, and January 30, 2020, for a total budget amount of not to exceed $150.

B. Havasu Softball League

Ricarda DeAnda informed the members of the plans to start a campus softball team for the league that starts in the spring. She stated that there is a $39 fee for participants; a team must have a minimum of 10 participants; and both staff, faculty, and students may participate. More information will be provided once liability measures are determined. A campus bowling team as part of league was also discussed.

C. Mohave Community College Libraries and Student Activities Council Bookmark Contest

The MCC Library staff requests permission to hold a contest to design a new bookmark for MCC libraries. Students will submit their artwork for consideration as the new library bookmark design. Additionally, the winner will receive a $25 gift card. Funding is requested in the amount of $1000, divided amongst the three campuses: Bullhead City Campus (BHC), Neil Kingman Campus (NCK), and Lake Havasu City Campus (LHC) in the amount of $335 each, to cover the cost of printing the bookmarks.

Matthew Saginario made a motion, and Wanda Dickinson seconded that motion, to approve spending up to $335 for printing of bookmarks for the Mohave Community College Libraries Bookmark Contest.

D. S.A.V.E. Presentation

Shannon Lay, Recruiter presented information on S.A.V.E, a suicide prevention training program, and recommended bringing this training to the campus. A committee was formed, including Julieta Villa, Matthew Saginario, and Zachary Stroyk to work with Ms. Lay on the details of bringing this organization to the campus. The committee will meet on October 11, at 1 p.m., and bring information back to the SAC at the next meeting.

E. 2020 Census

Dean Woods expressed the importance of the 2020 census, especially with regard to program funding, and encouraged students to be involved with the project. She will post any census jobs available..

F. Pet Partners of Lake Havasu City for Midterms and Finals Week Update

A discussion ensued about the details of having Pet Partners on the campus for midterms and finals weeks. The organization needs a common area, preferably inside, for the dogs, and the sessions are usually one hour long. The members agreed to request Pet Partners to come to the campus on Thursday, December 5, and Tuesday, December 10, 2019 in the Student Center for a two-hour period each day. Pet Partners asks for one week noticed to schedule event. There is no cost for this event. Julieta Villa will contact Pet Partners and bring the information back to the SAC at the next meeting.

G. Spring Campus Dance Update

The members agreed to have the dance in lieu of the Welcome to Spring Bash. The theme for the dance will be Dancing through the Decades. The committee will continue to update the SAC as plans envelope.

H. Acoustic Music Night/Jame Session Update

The members decided to have this event on a Friday evening in February. Ricarda DeAnda agreed to look into local musicians and/or bands to jam at the event.

VIII. Civic Engagement and Service Learning

A. Recycle Bins Update

Ricarda DeAnda reported that the cost for recycle bin service is $111.40 monthly for two all-in-one recycling bins. She will bring more information back to the SAC on the size of the receptacles and if a yearly payment can be made instead of a monthly contract.
